February 2010

From the Director.....

This month is going to be filled with fun activities and celebrations. I can't wait!

The book fair will begin on Monday February 8th and there will be, once again, newly published books and classics of famous authors represented. It will culminate on Friday February 12th with Grandparent's Day. Make sure to invite your family's senior members to join their grandchildren in our annual multi-generational celebration of love. It will begin in the sanctuary at 9:30 with Shabbat and continue in the preschool classrooms with Challah and beverages for snack. There will be hugging, kissing, dancing, singing and Shabbat blessings.

The PTO has scheduled two special family events this month. The movie matinee on President's Day when school is closed and the Character Breakfast on Sunday morning February 28th. What a perfect way to celebrate Purim!

I'd also like to report that we collected almost $200 for The Haitian Relief Fund during the past several weeks. Thank you for your contributions.

Temple Beth El is represented in Haiti by two of our own. Last week Dr. Cotton, - Manuel's daddy in the Ducks class, a pediatrician, flew to Haiti to help the children get well. And, Miss Orfa's son, Roberto, is stationed there with his Military Unit and is working very hard to help during these troubled times. We are very proud of both of them.....

.....Learning, Laughter and Love...

Great Things are happening!!!!

Beginning February 18th we are introducing a new enrichment class for children in Pre-k up to 3rd grade.

It will be the nationally acclaimed dance program Hip Hop Kidz. Hip Hop Kidz teaches the importance of self-esteem, exercise and being a team player, in fact each class is as much about dancing as it is about character development. It is not uncommon to see Hip Hop Kidz performing at local events. Check out their website: www.hiphopkidz.net

Suzy Stone their Director will be here on Thursday February 4th from 2:45 - 3:30 to show you a demonstration class. Don't forget to tell your friends, anyone is welcomed to attend.

Our classes will begin on Thursday February 18th from 4pm - 5 pm. And will run until the end of May.
